TAKES AN APPEAL

A. O. MASON, CHARGED WITH EXCEEDING THE SPEED LIMIT.

APPEAL FROM CITY COURT

Charles C. Moore, Charged With Speeding, Will Also Appeal—A Fine of $25 and Costs Was Assessed.

In the case of A. O. Mason, charged with exceeding the speed limit with an automobile, a jury in the city police court Monday evening returned a verdict assessing a fine of $5 and costs. This case was tried last Wednesday, but the jury could not agree, and so it was set for trial for Monday afternoon.

Many witnesses were examined by both the city and the defense and the case was hotly contested. W. E. Wiles, city attorney, represented the city and Wm. G. Sawyers and A. F. Harvey the defendant. The attorneys for the defense charges the mayor, before whom the case was tried, the city attorney and the city marshal with a conspiracy, and that the court is no more than a kangaroo court, and that fairness can't be secured. So an appeal will be taken by Mr. Mason to the circuit court.

The case of Charles C. Moore, charged with speeding, was tried Tuesday before Mayor Robey, acting as police judge. A jury of six men was drawn. This case was also a battle royal between the attorneys, but the attorneys for the defense announced that they would put up no defense, since they claimed they were unable to secure fairness in that court. So an appeal will be taken in this case to the circuit court.

Moore was fined $25 and costs by the jury, and the attorneys for the defense said that they would take an appeal to the circuit court. They made no defense in this case.

THE LATEST NEWSPAPER LAW.

Some Decisions of the United States Supreme Court and Latest Postal Laws.

Few readers of newspapers fully and clearly understand the laws governing the laws of subscriptions.

The following are decisions of the United States supreme court on the subject:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew subscriptions.

2. If subscribers order a discontinuance of their periodical, the publisher may continue to send them until all dues are paid.

3. If the subscribers refuse to take the periodicals from the postoffice to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former addresses they are responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it, and the subscriber will be held responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrearages is sent to the publisher.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest anyone for fraud who takes the paper and refuses to pay for it.

Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run for some time unpaid and then orders the postmaster to mark it "refused" and a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and a fine the same as for theft.

CITY PLANT A MONEY MAKER.

Carthage is Paying Off Water Works Bonds Faster Than They Mature.

The following article from the Kansas City Times may be of interest to the people of Maryville:

The municipally owned water works system of Carthage, Mo., is making money so fast that the town is paying a premium on bonds which are out against the plant to retire them.

"The plant cost $226,000. It has been in operation a little more than two years and has paid off $36,000 of the principal," said C. B. Platt, president of the board of public works of Carthage. "This is a much faster rate than the bonds are maturing. The city now has $15,000 in its treasury to applytoward paying off more bonds, but none of the bondholders will release them.

"In considerably less than ten years at this rate the system will be entirely paid for. The water rate will then be lowered and the plant will still put several thousand dollars a year into the city treasury to spend on streets and other city improvements. The system is supplied with water from deep wells. The water is remarkably pure."

Only one case of typhoid fever has developed in Carthage this summer and this was in a family which had a private well. Experts have said that the water works system of Carthage is the third best in Missouri as regards pressure, extent and purity.

ON TO DES MOINES

WILL VISIT STATE FAIR

And Tell the People About the Saints Highway—St. Joseph Crowd Was Small.

The proposed automobile run to Des Moines Tuesday failed to attract any great number of entries. Several cars left Maryville about 12:30 and others were expected to join at Bedford and Creston, Ia.

One car came up from St. Joseph and two from Rosendale. The pilot car out of Maryville was driven by Earl Barmann, and carried John I. Hoffman, secretary of the Commercial club; Ralph Marcel, photographer, and James Todd. Clark Scott and A. R. Harper also had cars.

The party expects to spend the night at Creston, Ia., and will leave there Wednesday morning, making the run to Des Moines by the middle of the afternoon. At Creston a meeting will be held to work up interest in the Saints Highway. The purpose of the visitors in making the trip is to stimulate interest in the Saints Highway and secure a greater amount of travel over the road.

The party will visit the state fair now going on at Des Moines and return at their pleasure, no schedule having been arranged for the return trip.

WAS A LUCKY ACCIDENT.

Four-Year-Old Son of L. O. Goble Caught Between Wheels of Automobile.

Charles Goble, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Goble, living at 102 East First street, was caught between the front and back wheels of William Everhart's automobile Tuesday evening, but escaped without serious injury. He suffered a cut on his head from the auto lamp, but was not otherwise hurt.

The little boy ran with his older brother to get a ride in a buggy with some one who called to them to come and ride, and neither child saw the approaching car. Both ran so quickly that Mr. Everhart could not stop his machine in time to prevent striking the little boy. If the car had been going any faster the back wheel would have passed over the child's body.

The little boy was taken to the office of the Drs. Martin and examined and his head dressed.

Mr. Goble is one of the men in charge of the work on the government building.

THEY FEAR A TRICK

PROGRESSIVE LEADERS WARN FOLLOWERS AGAINST FUSION.

GIFT BEARING GREEKS

Are Not to Be Trusted—Say Fusion With Republicans Will Defeat Permanent Organization.

The following is a dispatch from St. Louis that was published in Sunday's Kansas City Star:

Hundreds of letters to Progressives throughout Missouri were rushed from state headquarters tonight warning Progressives of an attempt that was being made by Republicans to fuse with the Progressives on the state ticket. The letter demands the impeachment of every county chairman who favors fusion. The letter follows:

"There is a movement on foot in the Republican party, which sees defeat staring itself in the face, to pack the Missouri state Progressive convention in St. Louis, September 3. Republicans, disguised as Progressives, will try to get this convention to indorse the state Republican ticket, and thus attempt to defeat the permanent formation of the state Progressive party. That, if successful, would set back the cause of good government and assist the old bosses of both parties in keeping control of the machinery of government in Missouri.

"We have this in writing at state headquarters over the signature of a state committeeman (He writes he is willing to nominate any qualified man who is the nominee of another party if such man will openly and willingly indorse the Chicago platform and its nominees.) He means fusion with the Republican party. That is a return to the old-fashioned, ring politics. It is a political trick, in direct conflict with the spirit and resolutions of the Kansas City convention as carried by a vote of 302 to 70.

"To check that trick, call with your Progressive friends in a body on your county chairman at once and demand that he state his position unequivocally as for or against fusion. If he says he is against it, strengthen his hands in every way. If he says he is for fusion call a special meeting of the Progressives in your district and nominate a trustworthy Progressive for his place immediately thereafter. Telegraph the state central committee, St. Louis headquarters, 517 Olive street, stating the facts and asking that they depose the delinquent committeeman and replace him with the Progressive so selected.

"See that all delegates to the convention here in St. Louis are selected as prompt as possible, and that the call for the election of these delegates is issued and the convention held before August 31. See that every delegate is for a straight Progressive ticket from top to bottom.

"The political bosses, who hope to profit by this despicable trick which they have instigated must not be allowed to interfere with the will of the people and the tremendous sentiment that exists amongst honest men for a new, clean political faith.—Paul V. Janis, vice chairman, state committee."

RULES IN PASSING VEHICLES.

What the Law is in Regard to the Rules of the Road.

Several accidents have been narrowly averted recently through the ignorance of the rules of the road, automobile drivers say, and a request has been made to this paper to publish these rules. On page 327 of the laws of Missouri, 1911, under paragraph 3 of section 8, the following rules are given:

"Whenever a person operating a motor vehicle shall meet in the public highway any other person riding or driving a horse, or horses or animals of any other vehicle, the person so operating such motor vehicle shall reasonably turn the same to the right of the center of such highway so as to pass without interference. When any such person so operating a motor vehicle shall overtake any such horse, animal or other vehicle, the rider or driver of such horse, animal or other vehicle shall, as soon as practicable, turn aside to the right so as to allow free passage on the left-hand side. Any such person so operating a motor vehicle shall, at the intersection of public highways, keep to the right of the intersection of the centers of such highways when turning to the right and pass to the right of the intersection of the centers of such highways when turning to the right and pass to the right of such intersection when turning to the left."

'What this institution wants is some striking advertising material, something that has a thought in it, something that will catch the eye and command the mind. Fix me up an ad that will make a hit when it is published in the morning papers."

Two hours later the advertising man laid this on the bank president's desk:

"If Elijah were living today there would be no ravens to feed him. That brand of raven has gone to roost forever.

"The only bird that will feed you now is the eagle on the American dollar. Catch the eagles. Save the dollars. If you do, you and your family will never starve. You will have Elijah backed off the boards."

"Don't Be a Hog," says Dr. Cutler on Diet.

The simple diet, like the simple life, is always the best.

Drink plenty of water—it aids in keeping away gout.

Eat only a fair amount of any one food. Too much poisons the stomach. Don't gulp your food, but take your time at your meals.

Peas are good to eat for protein diet, being preferable to beans, which are considered best by many people.

Eat less meat and drink more milk. Milk is the most nourishing of all foods.

Don't eat things because they are in style. Eat them because they are wholesome.

An overabundance of the most wholesome kinds of food is bad. Don't be a hog. Man doesn't like to eat, but eats to live.

Bread and milk alone will give one all the nourishment necessary.

TAFT SIGNS DEFICIENCY BILL

Call for a Quorum in Either House Would Have Prolonged Proceedings Indefinitely — President Left Within an Hour.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Sobered by Saturday's all night session of filibusters and disagreements, congress adjusted its differences, invited President Taft up to the capitol once more, and at 4:30 p. m. wrote "finis" after the proceedings of the second session of the Sixty-second congress.

Four senators, Chamberlain, Martin, Swanson and Culberson, after fighting bitterly for the payment of the "state claims" embodied in the general deficiency bill, yielded to the urgings of their colleagues and permitted the senate to yield to the demands of the house and strike these claims from the bill.

With these old claims, amounting in all to $600,000, went the "extra month's" pay for congressional employes, which the senate demanded and the house refused to give.

The president signed the general deficiency bill at 4:10 o'clock, making certain the payment of the $1,800,000 deficiency in army pay and scores of other important payments that hinged on the passage of the bill. The last measure to which his pen was put was a bill disposing of lands in the Colville Indian reservation.

The session "just fizzled out" in the senate, to use the words of one observer. A comparative handful of members occupied their seats and a call for a quorum in either the house or senate would have forced a return of the embarrassing situation of last week.

Many important appointments made by President Taft in the last few months were left unconfirmed. Among the more important are those of Judge Richard E. Sloan of Arizona, Maj. Gen. W. W. Wotherspoon, Brig. Gen. John McClernand and Judge Clinton W. Howard of the state of Washington.

Within an hour after adjournment President Taft was on his private car bound for Beverly and a vacation he expects will not be broken until December. The White house is practically deserted, for most of the office employes left with the president. Summer offices will be opened and probably most of the force will stay in Beverly until late in October.

TUNG-CHOW LOOTED AND BURNED

Large Numbers of Discontented "Old Style" Troops Suddenly Appeared in Streets.

Pekin, Aug. 27.—A considerable part of Tung-Chow, 12 miles from Pekin, was looted and burned by great numbers of discontented "old style" Chinese troops, who suddenly appeared in the streets, bent on pillage and bloodshed. Twelve persons were slain and part of the town practically destroyed.

It is believed the recent edict ordering soldiers to cut off their queues is responsible for the outlawry.

Slain by Fugitive Negro.

Gadsden, Ala., Aug. 27.—In a fight between a fugitive negro and a mountain posse, the black killed one of his pursuers, wounded another, then slipped out of sight through one of the upper passes. The chase continues.

PACIFIC FLEET IS BROKEN UP

No Ships Now Available for New Trouble.

COAST MUST DEPEND ON ARMY

Tenth Infantry Would be Called Upon if American Lives Should be Jeopardized in Other South American Countries.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The navy's resources on the Pacific coast have been drawn upon to such an extent that should further trouble be encountered in Nicaragua beyond the power of the forces now there or en route to cope with, or should some of the American lives or interests in other Central or South American countries be jeopardized, the army will be called upon to assist the marines.

The tenth infantry, now on the Panama canal zone, would be the first called upon to answer the call. This branch of the service is said to be much better equipped than the marines for landing parties.

Cruiser Breaks Down.

The accident to the Vicksburg is serious because it takes practically the last available vessel for duty on the west coast. The state department says it must have a vessel for the Mexican coast. The navy has none except the cruiser Cleveland, which has just been taken out of reserve and ordered to Nicaragua. These orders have been rescinded and the Cleveland ordered to overtake the Vicksburg at Magdalena bay and escort her back to Mare Island for repairs. This will take three days. The Cleveland will then proceed to carry out the Vicksburg's orders.

The Vicksburg when last heard from was about 160 miles away from Magdalena bay, slowly making her way by sail. She is believed by the navy department to be in no immediate danger.

No Men to Man Ships.

There are a number of vessels in reserve on the Pacific coast, but there are no men to man them and there is no provision for increasing the enlistments.

The Pacific fleet is badly broken up itself. The flagship, California, is now steaming for Corinto to land bluejackets and marines, and thence to Panama to get the detachment of marines which the Prairie is taking to Colon. The Maryland is conveying special Ambassador Knox and his party to Japan for the funeral of the late emperor. The South Dakota is now in dry dock for repairs and the Colorado is steaming for Corinto. The supply ship, Glacier, is also en route to Nicaragua.

This leaves none of the ships in active service on the Pacific coast available to take care of further revolutions, should they be fomented in any of the other Central and South American countries.

GREAT MUSKOGEE DAM ASSURED

Contract Let and Construction About to Begin on Million Dollar Structure.

Muskogee, Ok., Aug. 27.—After five years of dickering a contract has been signed to build a dam and hydro-electric plant in the Grand river east of Muskogee. It will cost $1,000,000 and generate 20,000 horse power.

The contract was made between the Muskogee Water Power company, which has options for the site, and Samuel P. Brown, Jr., of Chicago. The company is to turn over to Brown all its rights with a franchise to operate for 25 years. Brown is to build the plant and operate it before the franchise is turned over to him. Brown is to pay the company dollar for dollar on all it has expended up to the present time in preliminary work. The bond to do this has already been put up.

Terrific Wind and Rain Causes Heavy Property Loss in Ohio City.

Cleveland, Aug. 27.—Three men lost their lives during a terrific wind and rain storm that swept the city.

Virgil Bellows, one of the party aboard the yacht Red Head, was knocked overboard by a swinging boom and drowned. Michael Sheer was struck down in his bedroom by a bolt of lightning as he closed a window. John Mulnix was also killed by lightning.

Trees were blown down and much property was lost.

Lumber Hearing Delayed.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 27.—The taking of testimony in the government's anti-trust suit against the Northwestern Lumbermen's association was postponed to await the arrival of Judge Milton D. Purdy of Minneapolis, chief counsel for the defendant.

LAWYERS MAY SPLIT ON COLOR

ADMISSION OF BLACK MAN CAUSES DISSENTION.

American Bar Association in Annual Session at Milwaukee, Wrangles Over Negro.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 27.—When the thirty-fifth annual convention of the American Bar association opened here today at the Hotel Pfister, members said that before the end of the three-day session the association might be split wide open by the fight for and against the admission of Assistant Attorney General William H. Lewis, a negro, as a member. Lewis is known at Harvard, where he was graduated in 1894, as the perhaps greatest center rush in all football history. He has a champion in no less a personage than his chief, Attorney General Wickersham, who has threatened to resign from the association if Lewis is not admitted. Col. Alexander Troy of Montgomery, Ala., has replied thus:

"You keep your negro and lose a thousand members throughout the South."

The executive committee admitted Lewis to membership without knowledge of his color, and then rescinded its action and left the matter for the association to decide.

The president's address, by S. S. Gregory of Illinois, opened the meeting this morning. He communicated the most noteworthy changes in statute law made in the several states and in congress in the past year. Reports of officers and committees and discussions of these reports were the principal features of the first day's routine.

Frank B. Kellogg's address on "New Nationalism," comes tomorrow morning. Following the discussion of this paper there will be discussions regarding proposed laws to prevent delay and unnecessary cost in litigation; compensation for industrial accidents, and their prevention; bills relating to courts of admirality; opposition to the recall of judges, government liens on real estate, and publicity. Tomorrow night the association will hear a paper on "The Courts and the Constitution," by Senator George Sutherland of Utah.

A symposium on the general topic, "The American Judicial System," will be handled Thursday under these subtitles: "The Judges," by Henry D. Estabrook of New York; "The Lawyers," by Joseph C. France of Maryland; "The Procedure," by Frederick N. Judson of Missouri. The annual dinner will be given by the association Thursday night at the Plankinton house, with W. N. Hensel of Lancaster, Pa., as toastmaster.

NEGRO PROTECTS WHITE GIRLS

Seeing Them Insulted, Ex-Football Player Promptly Knocks Assailant Down.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 27.—Raymond Dysart, a negro, who played on the freshmen football team of the University of Minnesota last year, is being held by the police after having probably fatally injured Michael Eide, white, when the latter, according to the police, insulted two young white girls. Witnesses told the police that Eide threw his arms about the girls, that they screamed for help and that Dysart, who was standing nearby, knocked Eide to the pavement, breaking his neck.

Drowns With Hundreds Near.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 27.—E. P. Dunham, 55 years old, a well known Lincoln business man, drowned in the Capital Beach swimming pool here and he was not missed until his wife, who had brought a lunch, began to hunt for him. The body was recovered after it had been under water more than two hours. The drowning took place in the presence of hundreds of people, but no one saw him go under.

Fireworks Killed a Man.

Cranston, R. I., Aug. 27.—The surrounding country was shaken by an explosion which blew up a house and killed Pietro Varrone, the caretaker. The house was wrecked. It is reported the owner of the house had four boxes of fireworks stored there.

SPELLBINDERS WILL GET BUSY

Close of Congress Marks Opening of Lively Campaign.

MANY STATESMEN TAKE TO STUMP

Washington Almost Deserted in a Day —All Members Hurrying Preparations to Leave—Nearly all Have Speaking Dates.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Primed for the strenuous campaign of the two months that precede the November elections, members of the senate and house hurried out of town or made reservations for the next few days to get what rest is possible before the wearing round of stump speeches and political meetings begin.

Speaker Clark prepared to leave at once for Maine, where he is to speak this week. Senator Clapp will leave immediately for Vermont to make Progressive speeches.

Cannon Will be "Loaded."

Former Speaker Cannon confided to friends that he intended to "hang around" for a few days to get up a collection of campaign literature.

"Then I'm going out on the stump," he said, "and when I make a statement that anybody challenges, I'll be loaded for him."

Senator La Follette will remain in Washington for a week or so and then go to Wisconsin. He has stated that he would endeavor to go into all Progressive states during the campaign aiding state candidates of a progressive Republican type. Senator Poindexter of Washington, one of the strong Progressives of the senate, will visit Col. Roosevelt at New York and spend some time in the East before getting actively into the campaign.

Senator Penrose has already left for a cruise off the New Jersey coast. Senator Simmons of North Carolina will go to New York to confer with leaders of the Democratic national committee and then hasten to his home state, where he is a candidate for re-election. Senator Bacon, after a visit to Georgia, expects to return north for political speeches.

Nelson to "Finish Threshing."

Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota announced that he was returning to his farm "to finish up threshing."

Representative Henry of Texas, chairman of the house rules committee, also will enter the Maine campaign. He left for there and later will return to Texas. After September 30 he will fill speaking dates in New Mexico, Arizona, California, Washington, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri, Indiana and Ohio.

Representative Lloyd of Missouri, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, left for his home. He will be back in Washington September 10, to open headquarters of his campaign committee. Representative McKinley, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, is already out on the campaign.

TRAIN ROBBER NOT A BEGINNER

Inquiries Regarding Lounsberry Pour Into Topeka From all Quarters.

Topeka, Aug. 27.—There appears to have been a remarkable similarity in many train robberies to the two mail car holdups of Wells Lounsberry, under arrest here for the Union Pacific robbery of Thursday night. The police and government officials have received several telegrams asking about probable crimes of Lounsberry in other states which were similar to the mail car robberies.

The robbery of the Southern Pacific mail car in California January 5, and the holdup of the six mail clerks on Union Pacific train No. 101 between Kansas City and Lawrence Thursday is freely admitted by Lounsberry, but he denies that he has had anything to do with any other robberies or holdups.

STATE GAME LAWS ARE IGNORED

Campers From Various States Flock to Oklahoma and Kill, Regardless of Statutes.

Hugo, Ok., Aug. 27.—The usual summer killing of game is taking place in the Kiamitia mountain country. Deer and wild turkey are reported more plentiful than last year. Campers from Texas, Arkansas, Missouri and Oklahoma go into the mountains ostensibly to fish. They scatter the charred fragments of bones of deer and turkey killed out of season in defiance of the bag limit. The number of such camping parties is large. Many may be found along Glover, Terrapin, Mountain Fork and Little river. One party lately had not only its wagons, but ten horses and numerous high-pressure rifles.

Made a Fortune in Jail.

New York, Aug. 27.—Joseph G. Robin, ex-president of the wrecked Northern bank, has made another fortune of more than $1,000,000 while spending the last year in the Tombs, according to the New York Globe. The paper asserts that Robin was allowed a "private office" in the Tombs, equipped with a telephone and a typewriter.

TOOK HONEYMOON TRIP ON $6

BRIDEGROOM IN JAIL OVER $250 MOTOR BILL.

Frisco Salesgirl Thought She Had Married Son of Millionaire Orchard Owner.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—James Byrd, 32 years old, was driven with his bride to police headquarters by Louis Wait, chauffeur, who said the youth owed him $250 for automobile hire. The prisoner admitted he was unable to pay the bill and had to spend the night in jail.

Questioned by the police, the distressed bride said she met Byrd recently in San Francisco and consented to marry him after he told her his father was a millionaire fruit rancher in Santa Clara county.

Several days ago Byrd appeared in an automobile he hired from Wait at the rate of $50 a day and induced the girl to accompany him to San Jose, where she changed her name from Jessica Short, salesgirl, to Mrs. James Byrd, supposed daughter-in-law of a man of millions.

Motoring back to San Francisco, Byrd had the chauffeur stop outside of an opulent fruit ranch, which he said belonged to his father. Going inside for a moment, Byrd returned with a handful of fruit and said his father was too ill to be seen.

The chauffeur told the police that Byrd slipped a dime to the ranch hand for the fruit and that he decided to drive him direct to the city prison when the young man began to talk about deferring payment on the automobile bill until his father got over his indisposition.

Call for Progressive Party Convention.

To the Members of the Progressive Party in Nodaway County: Gentlemen—You are hereby requested to assemble in convention at the Empire theater in Maryville, Mo., on Saturday, August 31st, 1912, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of electing ten delegates and ten alternates from this county to attend the state convention of the Progressive party in St. Louis, Mo., on Sept. 3d, 1912, and represent Nodaway county in said convention.

Also for the further purpose of nominating a full Progressive ticket for the offices of representative, sheriff, treasurer, prosecuting attorney, judge of the north district, judge of the south district, surveyor and coroner, all of said offices to be filled at the election this coming November.

The county convention herein called will also take such steps as may be deemed best looking to the completion of a Progressive party organization in Nodaway county.

This county convention will be a mass convention, and every voter of the county who is a member of the Progressive party will be entitled to be present and participate.

The downstairs or main floor of the theater will be reserved for the members of the party, and no person will be admitted to said floor until he has delivered to the doorkeeper a ticket in the form which will be prepared and furnished by the county committee, and which ticket must be signed by the party desiring admission, and also state his residence, that he is a voter in Nodaway county, a member of the Progressive party, and that he will support at the polls in November the Progressive ticket, national, state and county. Blank tickets may be secured of the committee on the day of the convention. The gallery of the theater will be open to the public, unless it should be necessary to clear it to make room for members of the party.

Witness our hands this 22d day of August, 1912, by order of the Nodaway county Progressive committee.

GO EASY ON HEALTH FADS

Trouble Is That They Cannot Be Made to Suit the Physical Make-Up of All People.

Cleveland is the home of the newest fad. The Ohio city has a "Keep Well" club composed of persons who believe in restricting indulgence in food. They fast now and then from a week to a month. One apostle of the cult declares he has found abounding health in a diet of eight quarts of milk daily for eight months.

It may be that this foodless life is beneficial to some Clevelanders. It is probably also true that many people in other cities—perhaps even some in Detroit—eat too much, particularly in the summer time. But it is equally probable that many imitators of the cult will starve themselves beyond the endurance point of weak hearts and so commit virtual suicide.

It is just at this point that so many health, beauty, and nostrum fads become so deadly and so damaging. Every well-informed person knows that a wise medical practitioner when called to attend a sufferer, must try to adjust his remedies to the physical powers and idiosyncrasies of the patient. The remedy which acted like magic in the case of Jones who had la grippe may prove useless and actually dangerous to Smith, owing to some disturbance of Smith's digestion, weakness of his heart, or what not. So with health fads. Hence, before becoming any sort of a faddist see your family doctor.—Detroit Free Pres.

WHEN MISS ANTHONY FAILED

Bowed in Defeat Before Her Woman's Nature, Though Probably She Never Knew It.

In an article on "A Woman and Her Raiment" in the American Magazine, Ida M. Tarbell has the following to say about bloomers:

"The story of the bloomer is piquant. It was launched and worn. It became the subject of platform oratory and had its organ. Why is it not worn today? No woman who has ever masqueraded in man's dress or donned it for climbing will ever forget the freedom of it. Yet the only woman in the Christian world who ever wore it at once naturally and with that touch of coquetry which is necessary to carry it off, as far as this writer's personal observation goes, was Mme. Dieulafoy, and Mme. Dieulafoy was protected by the French government and an exclusive circle.

"Bloomers proved too much for even the courage of dear Miss Anthony. For two years she wore them, and then with tears and lamentations resigned them. In that resignation Miss Anthony paid tribute, unconsciously no doubt, to something deeper than she ever grasped in the woman question. Her valiant soul met its master in her own nature, but she did not recognize it. She abandoned her convenient and becoming costume because of prejudice, she said. What other prejudice ever dismayed her! She thrived on fighting them; she met her woman's soul, and did not know it!"

First Picture Postal Cards in 1870.

In Nuremberg they have been making arrangements to celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of the picture postal card with a congress and exposition this year. Unfortunately for their plans, however, it has been discovered that the first picture postal card was not made in Germany or sent from Nuremberg, nor was it born in 1882, as they had supposed. The distinction of making and mailing the first is now claimed by Leon Besnardeau, a book seller of Sille-le-Guillaume, near Conlie, department of Sarthe, France, in 1870, during the war with Prussia, he printed pictures on postal cards he was mailing to clients. M. Besnardeau is still alive and there are many of his old customers in France who have the cards he mailed them. The Germans adopted the idea for the Nuremberg exposition in 1882.

Obedience to Moral Law.

"Obedience to moral law will not bring prosperity, necessarily, but it will enable a man to do without it; it will ennoble poverty. Goodness is its own paymaster. There is no need to make goodness attractive by artificial rewards; no need to make vice forbidding by arbitrary punishments. The fearful punishment of lying is to be a liar; the fearful punishment of vice is to be a vicious man; the horrible punishment of beastliness is to be a beast. The splendid reward of being good is to be a good man. You love your husband and wife and children and friends. Do you ask for more than the joy and privilege of loving?"—A Modern Preacher.

Friend of the People.

Mr. Pompus (to butler)—I'm expecting a deputation at 12 o'clock to ask me to stand for the borough.

Butler—Yes, sir.

Mr. Pompus—Perhaps it would be as well to remove all the best umbrellas from the hat stand.—London Opinion.

Thoughtless Query.

"Have you ever been married before?" asked the license clerk.

"Great heavens, young man!" exclaimed the experienced prima donna. "Don't you read the papers?"

Whereupon she wired immediate instructions to discharge her press agent.

NEED OF THE DAILY APPLE

That or Some Other Form of Fruit Provides Just the Elements the Body Requires.

Doctors agree that the ancient adage that "an apple a day keeps the doctor away" is not without some foundation in fact. Fruit acids provide the blood with needed elements and these are specially needed in warm weather when the stomach loathes all manner of baked meats.

Men have a craving for alcohol that is so nearly universal that some people consider it the human body's natural craving for a germicide. The alcohol in fruits is the valuable germicide that nature intended man to have. This germicide of alcohol is injurious when taken in the shape of intoxicants, but beneficial when consumed as a constituent part of fruits.

The case of carbolic acid affords an analogy to this of fruit and alcohol. No sane person would think of drinking carbolic acid as an agent of health, and yet the chemical laboratory called the body secretes minute amounts of carbolic acid, a fact indicating that it is a necessity to nature's housekeeping.

Eaters of fruit obtain the germicidal alcohol beneficially because naturally, whereas drinkers of ardent spirits procure their alcohol in unnaturally large quantities, and therefore in a highly hurtful shape.

The daily apple or grape or some other fruit is as indispensable as the daily bread. It is a part of the household bill of fare that should not be overlooked at any season, and least of all at this. Who knows, too, but what the road from excessive indulgence in alcoholic stimulants runs from wine or cider through grape juice and other juices or fruits to plentiful consumption of the fruits themselves.

BODY AS A COMPASS NEEDLE

Ants Have an Unfailing Method of Finding Their Way Back to Their Nests.

Not only naturalists, but every one who has watched ants has wondered how they find their way to and from their nests. A French naturalist, M. Cornetz, has been observing ants in Algeria and in a recent issue of La Nature he tells the results of his observations.

The ant, he says, in its outward journey, proceeds throughout in the direction initially chosen; on its return the insect places its body at the same angle and walks in the opposite direction. The body of the ant would therefore act as a kind of compass needle.

If an ant is caught at the nest and transported to a point some yards distant, the insect is quite incapable of finding its way back. It runs around on the ground until it accidentally comes across the entrance to the burrow. The case is quite different if an ant is allowed to find its way to a distance unmolested. On leaving the nest it places itself in a certain direction, and holds the same, no matter what obstacles it may meet with en route, and no matter what side tracks it may occasionally strike in order to seize some article of food or of structural value for its nest.

The return is effected directly, rapidly and without hesitation, even if the ground covered has been swept in order to change its relief. The return is obviously determined completely by the outward trip, and an ant which has left its nest on a voyage of exploration finds its way back just because it has made the outward journey.

Money Well Spent.

During the last year 164 brides received the $50 due them by the will of Oliver Smith, the fairy godfather of the Berkshires. Oliver Smith was the uncle of Sophia Smith, founder of Smith college, and on his death in 1845 left his property, amounting to $370,000, to be used for various charities, one of which was the giving of $50 to every bride who was a resident of Northampton, Amhert, Hadley, Hadfield, Dearfield or Whately. Since 1845 $282,000 has been distributed to brides. In many instances the bridegroom received $500 because of a provision in Mr. Smith's will giving that amount to a young man when he completes learning a trade. Another provision of the will helps poor widows, provided they are residents of the towns named. Already upward of $2,000,000 has been paid to widows and young men who have learned a trade.

To Reclaim 1,000,000 Acres.

The Egyptian government has begun one of the most costly and comprehensive drainage projects for the reclamation of lands ever attempted by any government in the world. Its object is to make cultivable 1,000,000 acres of fertile land in the delta of lower Egypt. It is estimated that the work will require four years and $15,000,000 will be required for drainage, and a like amount for irrigation. Ninety per cent. of the land redeemed will be owned by the government. The principal object of the project is to redeem a fertile but now worthless region of the delta under cotton cultivation.

Taxation.

"In what respect do you complain of being overtaxed?" asked the persuasive campaigner.

"Well," replied Farmer Corntossel, handing him several pages of literature, "chiefly in respect to my credulity."

PLAN SIBERIAN SEA ROUTES

Russian Authorities Seek to Establish Communication From Its Pacific Ports.

Contrary to previous reports, it now appears that the plans of the English captain, Webster, to establish regular steamship communication between European ports and northwestern Siberia, by way of the Arctic ocean and Kara sea have been disapproved by the Russian government, obviously for the reason that this bold undertaking, which appeared to be entirely feasible, would have diverted considerable traffic from the Trans-Siberian railway. On the other hand, the Russian authorities are furthering in every way the establishment of communication by sea between Pacific ports and northwestern Siberia via Bering strait, says a writer in the Scientific American. A surveying party, under Captain Grunfield, has proceeded from Yakutsk to Nishni Kolymsk, at the mouth of the Koyma river, to make a thorough investigation of that port, and the geologist, J. P. Tolmatschew, will study the conditions of navigation between the mouths of the Kolyma and the Lena, including an examination of the Lena delta, with a view to establishing a sea route to the latter region. The icebreakers Taimyr and Waigatsch were to leave Vladivostok in May for a surveying expedition along the coast of Kamtchatka, after which they will proceed via Bering strait to the arctic coast of Siberia for a cruise at least as far west as the Lena. If ice conditions prove favorable, these vessels will attempt to pass Cape Chelyuskin and accomplish the northeast passage to the European port of Archangel.

SCENE IN THE NEAR FUTURE

When Man Shall Have Completed, as He Boasts He Will, His Mastery of the Air.

The old village postmaster limped out of his office and elbowed his way through the crowd of gaping rustics, squinted at the heavens through a three-foot telescope.

"Anythin' in sight, Uncle John?" inquired the village interrogation mark.

The postmaster did not reply. He caught sight of a moving speck low down in the sky. The speck arose, it gained in bulk, it came nearer. The postmaster closed his $4 telescope.

"Here she is, boys!" shouted the village cut-up.

The areoplane swerved down. The letters, "U. S. M.," were plainly visible.

"Lookoutbelowthere!" called a faint voice, and down came a leathera mail bag. It struck the village smarty squarely on the head and knocked him into the horse trough.

The old postmaster shook his telescope at the aerial carriers.

"You're three minutes late, boys," he yelled.

But the big bird was soaring away across the valley.

A Truth Taught by Old Proverb.

An Arabian proverb divided mankind into four classes: "A man who knows naught and knows not that he knows not that he knows naught, he is a fool; shun him. A man who knows naught and knows that he knows naught, he is simple; instruct him. A man who knows not that he knows, he is asleep; wake him up. A man who knows, and knows that he knows, he is a leader; follow him."

Generous.

"You wish to marry my only daughter," murmured the magnate. "Would you take from me all that I have to solace me in my old age?"

"By no means," declared the duke warmly. "We want you to keep at least $50,000."—Sacred Heart Review.

TAKES AN APPEAL

A. O. MASON, CHARGED WITH EXCEEDING THE SPEED LIMIT.

APPEAL FROM CITY COURT

Charles C. Moore, Charged With Speeding, Will Also Appeal—A Fine of $25 and Costs Was Assessed.

In the case of A. O. Mason, charged with exceeding the speed limit with an automobile, a jury in the city police court Monday evening returned a verdict assessing a fine of $5 and costs. This case was tried last Wednesday, but the jury could not agree, and so it was set for trial for Monday afternoon.

Many witnesses were examined by both the city and the defense and the case was hotly contested. W. E. Wiles, city attorney, represented the city and Wm. G. Sawyers and A. F. Harvey the defendant. The attorneys for the defense charges the mayor, before whom the case was tried, the city attorney and the city marshal with a conspiracy, and that the court is no more than a kangaroo court, and that fairness can't be secured. So an appeal will be taken by Mr. Mason to the circuit court.

The case of Charles C. Moore, charged with speeding, was tried Tuesday before Mayor Robey, acting as police judge. A jury of six men was drawn. This case was also a battle royal between the attorneys, but the attorneys for the defense announced that they would put up no defense, since they claimed they were unable to secure fairness in that court. So an appeal will be taken in this case to the circuit court.

Moore was fined $25 and costs by the jury, and the attorneys for the defense said that they would take an appeal to the circuit court. They made no defense in this case.

THE LATEST NEWSPAPER LAW.

Some Decisions of the United States Supreme Court and Latest Postal Laws.

Few readers of newspapers fully and clearly understand the laws governing the laws of subscriptions.

The following are decisions of the United States supreme court on the subject:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew subscriptions.

2. If subscribers order a discontinuance of their periodical, the publisher may continue to send them until all dues are paid.

3. If the subscribers refuse to take the periodicals from the postoffice to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former addresses they are responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it, and the subscriber will be held responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrearages is sent to the publisher.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest anyone for fraud who takes the paper and refuses to pay for it.

Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run for some time unpaid and then orders the postmaster to mark it "refused" and a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and a fine the same as for theft.

CITY PLANT A MONEY MAKER.

Carthage is Paying Off Water Works Bonds Faster Than They Mature.

The following article from the Kansas City Times may be of interest to the people of Maryville:

The municipally owned water works system of Carthage, Mo., is making money so fast that the town is paying a premium on bonds which are out against the plant to retire them.

"The plant cost $226,000. It has been in operation a little more than two years and has paid off $36,000 of the principal," said C. B. Platt, president of the board of public works of Carthage. "This is a much faster rate than the bonds are maturing. The city now has $15,000 in its treasury to applytoward paying off more bonds, but none of the bondholders will release them.

"In considerably less than ten years at this rate the system will be entirely paid for. The water rate will then be lowered and the plant will still put several thousand dollars a year into the city treasury to spend on streets and other city improvements. The system is supplied with water from deep wells. The water is remarkably pure."

Only one case of typhoid fever has developed in Carthage this summer and this was in a family which had a private well. Experts have said that the water works system of Carthage is the third best in Missouri as regards pressure, extent and purity.

And Tell the People About the Saints Highway—St. Joseph Crowd Was Small.

The proposed automobile run to Des Moines Tuesday failed to attract any great number of entries. Several cars left Maryville about 12:30 and others were expected to join at Bedford and Creston, Ia.

One car came up from St. Joseph and two from Rosendale. The pilot car out of Maryville was driven by Earl Barmann, and carried John I. Hoffman, secretary of the Commercial club; Ralph Marcel, photographer, and James Todd. Clark Scott and A. R. Harper also had cars.

The party expects to spend the night at Creston, Ia., and will leave there Wednesday morning, making the run to Des Moines by the middle of the afternoon. At Creston a meeting will be held to work up interest in the Saints Highway. The purpose of the visitors in making the trip is to stimulate interest in the Saints Highway and secure a greater amount of travel over the road.

The party will visit the state fair now going on at Des Moines and return at their pleasure, no schedule having been arranged for the return trip.

WAS A LUCKY ACCIDENT.

Four-Year-Old Son of L. O. Goble Caught Between Wheels of Automobile.

Charles Goble, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Goble, living at 102 East First street, was caught between the front and back wheels of William Everhart's automobile Tuesday evening, but escaped without serious injury. He suffered a cut on his head from the auto lamp, but was not otherwise hurt.

The little boy ran with his older brother to get a ride in a buggy with some one who called to them to come and ride, and neither child saw the approaching car. Both ran so quickly that Mr. Everhart could not stop his machine in time to prevent striking the little boy. If the car had been going any faster the back wheel would have passed over the child's body.

The little boy was taken to the office of the Drs. Martin and examined and his head dressed.

Mr. Goble is one of the men in charge of the work on the government building.

THEY FEAR A TRICK

PROGRESSIVE LEADERS WARN FOLLOWERS AGAINST FUSION.

GIFT BEARING GREEKS

Are Not to Be Trusted—Say Fusion With Republicans Will Defeat Permanent Organization.

The following is a dispatch from St. Louis that was published in Sunday's Kansas City Star:

Hundreds of letters to Progressives throughout Missouri were rushed from state headquarters tonight warning Progressives of an attempt that was being made by Republicans to fuse with the Progressives on the state ticket. The letter demands the impeachment of every county chairman who favors fusion. The letter follows:

"There is a movement on foot in the Republican party, which sees defeat staring itself in the face, to pack the Missouri state Progressive convention in St. Louis, September 3. Republicans, disguised as Progressives, will try to get this convention to indorse the state Republican ticket, and thus attempt to defeat the permanent formation of the state Progressive party. That, if successful, would set back the cause of good government and assist the old bosses of both parties in keeping control of the machinery of government in Missouri.

"We have this in writing at state headquarters over the signature of a state committeeman (He writes he is willing to nominate any qualified man who is the nominee of another party if such man will openly and willingly indorse the Chicago platform and its nominees.) He means fusion with the Republican party. That is a return to the old-fashioned, ring politics. It is a political trick, in direct conflict with the spirit and resolutions of the Kansas City convention as carried by a vote of 302 to 70.

"To check that trick, call with your Progressive friends in a body on your county chairman at once and demand that he state his position unequivocally as for or against fusion. If he says he is against it, strengthen his hands in every way. If he says he is for fusion call a special meeting of the Progressives in your district and nominate a trustworthy Progressive for his place immediately thereafter. Telegraph the state central committee, St. Louis headquarters, 517 Olive street, stating the facts and asking that they depose the delinquent committeeman and replace him with the Progressive so selected.

"See that all delegates to the convention here in St. Louis are selected as prompt as possible, and that the call for the election of these delegates is issued and the convention held before August 31. See that every delegate is for a straight Progressive ticket from top to bottom.

"The political bosses, who hope to profit by this despicable trick which they have instigated must not be allowed to interfere with the will of the people and the tremendous sentiment that exists amongst honest men for a new, clean political faith.—Paul V. Janis, vice chairman, state committee."

RULES IN PASSING VEHICLES.

What the Law is in Regard to the Rules of the Road.

Several accidents have been narrowly averted recently through the ignorance of the rules of the road, automobile drivers say, and a request has been made to this paper to publish these rules. On page 327 of the laws of Missouri, 1911, under paragraph 3 of section 8, the following rules are given:

"Whenever a person operating a motor vehicle shall meet in the public highway any other person riding or driving a horse, or horses or animals of any other vehicle, the person so operating such motor vehicle shall reasonably turn the same to the right of the center of such highway so as to pass without interference. When any such person so operating a motor vehicle shall overtake any such horse, animal or other vehicle, the rider or driver of such horse, animal or other vehicle shall, as soon as practicable, turn aside to the right so as to allow free passage on the left-hand side. Any such person so operating a motor vehicle shall, at the intersection of public highways, keep to the right of the intersection of the centers of such highways when turning to the right and pass to the right of the intersection of the centers of such highways when turning to the right and pass to the right of such intersection when turning to the left."

Advertising Brought Up to Date.

The president of a Pittsburg savings bank called in his advertising man one morning and said:

'What this institution wants is some striking advertising material, something that has a thought in it, something that will catch the eye and command the mind. Fix me up an ad that will make a hit when it is published in the morning papers."

Two hours later the advertising man laid this on the bank president's desk:

"If Elijah were living today there would be no ravens to feed him. That brand of raven has gone to roost forever.

"The only bird that will feed you now is the eagle on the American dollar. Catch the eagles. Save the dollars. If you do, you and your family will never starve. You will have Elijah backed off the boards."

TEACHERS MEETING

PROF. OAKERSON RETURNS

From Trip to Neighboring Counties and Reports Prospects Good—Strong Speakers to Be Here.

County Superintendent W. M. Oakerson returned Monday from a trip to Gentry, Worth and Andrew county teachers' meetings, and reports that by an almost unanimous vote the teachers are in favor of the meeting to be held in Maryville. The Atchison county teachers are also in favor of the meeting here, as are also the Holt county teachers. This will assure the joint meeting of these five counties with Nodaway county to be held at Maryville.

Mr. Oakerson says there will be 800 teachers here at this meeting, to be held on November 7, 8 and 9, at the Normal school auditorium, and that it will be the biggest educational meeting ever held in Maryville or this part of the state.

Some of the big speakers at the teachers' meeting will be Dr. J. Adams Puffer of Boston, Mass.; Dr. Henry Suzzallo of the teachers' college of Columbia university, in New York, and Dean W. W. Charters of the State University at Columbia. Mr. Oakerson is now after a domestic science lecturer.

On one evening of the meeting there will be a declamatory contest between the high schools of these counties. Another evening a reception will be tendered to the teachers.

At the same time as the meeting will be the domestic science and corn growing contests, and the exhibits will be on display at the Normal.

"Don't Be a Hog," says Dr. Cutler on Diet.

The simple diet, like the simple life, is always the best.

Drink plenty of water—it aids in keeping away gout.

Eat only a fair amount of any one food. Too much poisons the stomach. Don't gulp your food, but take your time at your meals.

Peas are good to eat for protein diet, being preferable to beans, which are considered best by many people.

Eat less meat and drink more milk. Milk is the most nourishing of all foods.

Don't eat things because they are in style. Eat them because they are wholesome.

An overabundance of the most wholesome kinds of food is bad. Don't be a hog. Man doesn't like to eat, but eats to live.

Bread and milk alone will give one all the nourishment necessary.

CONGRESS ENDS LONG SESSION

Filibuster and Disagreements Finally Adjusted, to Relief of All.

TAFT SIGNS DEFICIENCY BILL

Call for a Quorum in Either House Would Have Prolonged Proceedings Indefinitely — President Left Within an Hour.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Sobered by Saturday's all night session of filibusters and disagreements, congress adjusted its differences, invited President Taft up to the capitol once more, and at 4:30 p. m. wrote "finis" after the proceedings of the second session of the Sixty-second congress.

Four senators, Chamberlain, Martin, Swanson and Culberson, after fighting bitterly for the payment of the "state claims" embodied in the general deficiency bill, yielded to the urgings of their colleagues and permitted the senate to yield to the demands of the house and strike these claims from the bill.

With these old claims, amounting in all to $600,000, went the "extra month's" pay for congressional employes, which the senate demanded and the house refused to give.

The president signed the general deficiency bill at 4:10 o'clock, making certain the payment of the $1,800,000 deficiency in army pay and scores of other important payments that hinged on the passage of the bill. The last measure to which his pen was put was a bill disposing of lands in the Colville Indian reservation.

The session "just fizzled out" in the senate, to use the words of one observer. A comparative handful of members occupied their seats and a call for a quorum in either the house or senate would have forced a return of the embarrassing situation of last week.

Many important appointments made by President Taft in the last few months were left unconfirmed. Among the more important are those of Judge Richard E. Sloan of Arizona, Maj. Gen. W. W. Wotherspoon, Brig. Gen. John McClernand and Judge Clinton W. Howard of the state of Washington.

Within an hour after adjournment President Taft was on his private car bound for Beverly and a vacation he expects will not be broken until December. The White house is practically deserted, for most of the office employes left with the president. Summer offices will be opened and probably most of the force will stay in Beverly until late in October.

TUNG-CHOW LOOTED AND BURNED

Large Numbers of Discontented "Old Style" Troops Suddenly Appeared in Streets.

Pekin, Aug. 27.—A considerable part of Tung-Chow, 12 miles from Pekin, was looted and burned by great numbers of discontented "old style" Chinese troops, who suddenly appeared in the streets, bent on pillage and bloodshed. Twelve persons were slain and part of the town practically destroyed.

It is believed the recent edict ordering soldiers to cut off their queues is responsible for the outlawry.

Slain by Fugitive Negro.

Gadsden, Ala., Aug. 27.—In a fight between a fugitive negro and a mountain posse, the black killed one of his pursuers, wounded another, then slipped out of sight through one of the upper passes. The chase continues.

PACIFIC FLEET IS BROKEN UP

No Ships Now Available for New Trouble.

COAST MUST DEPEND ON ARMY

Tenth Infantry Would be Called Upon if American Lives Should be Jeopardized in Other South American Countries.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The navy's resources on the Pacific coast have been drawn upon to such an extent that should further trouble be encountered in Nicaragua beyond the power of the forces now there or en route to cope with, or should some of the American lives or interests in other Central or South American countries be jeopardized, the army will be called upon to assist the marines.

The tenth infantry, now on the Panama canal zone, would be the first called upon to answer the call. This branch of the service is said to be much better equipped than the marines for landing parties.

Cruiser Breaks Down.

The acident to the Vicksburg is serious because it takes practically the last available vessel for duty on the west coast. The state department says it must have a vessel for the Mexican coast. The navy has none except the cruiser Cleveland, which has just been taken out of reserve and ordered to Nicaragua. These orders have been rescinded and the Cleveland ordered to overtake the Vicksburg at Magdalena bay and escort her back to Mare Island for repairs. This will take three days. The Cleveland will then proceed to carry out the Vicksburg's orders.

The Vicksburg when last heard from was about 160 miles away from Magdalena bay, slowly making her way by sail. She is believed by the navy department to be in no immediate danger.

No Men to Man Ships.

There are a number of vessels in reserve on the Pacific coast, but there are no men to man them and there is no provision for increasing the enlistments.

The Pacific fleet is badly broken up itself. The flagship, California, is now steaming for Corinto to land bluejackets and marines, and thence to Panama to get the detachment of marines which the Prairie is taking to Colon. The Maryland is conveying special Ambassador Knox and his party to Japan for the funeral of the late emperor. The South Dakota is now in dry dock for repairs and the Colorado is steaming for Corinto. The supply ship, Glacier, is also en route to Nicaragua.

This leaves none of the ships in active service on the Pacific coast available to take care of further revolutions, should they be fomented in any of the other Central and South American countries.

GREAT MUSKOGEE DAM ASSURED

Contract Let and Construction About to Begin on Million Dollar Structure.

Muskogee, Ok., Aug. 27.—After five years of dickering a contract has been signed to build a dam and hydro-electric plant in the Grand river east of Muskogee. It will cost $1,000,000 and generate 20,000 horse power.

The contract was made between the Muskogee Water Power company, which has options for the site, and Samuel P. Brown, Jr., of Chicago. The company is to turn over to Brown all its rights with a franchise to operate for 25 years. Brown is to build the plant and operate it before the franchise is turned over to him. Brown is to pay the company dollar for dollar on all it has expended up to the present time in preliminary work. The bond to do this has already been put up.

THREE DIE IN CLEVELAND STORM

Terrific Wind and Rain Causes Heavy Property Loss in Ohio City.

Cleveland, Aug. 27.—Three men lost their lives during a terrific wind and rain storm that swept the city.

LAWYERS MAY SPLIT ON COLOR

ADMISSION OF BLACK MAN CAUSES DISSENTION.

American Bar Association in Annual Session at Milwaukee, Wrangles Over Negro.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 27.—When the thirty-fifth annual convention of the American Bar association opened here today at the Hotel Pfister, members said that before the end of the three-day session the association might be split wide open by the fight for and against the admission of Assistant Attorney General William H. Lewis, a negro, as a member. Lewis is known at Harvard, where he was graduated in 1894, as the perhaps greatest center rush in all football history. He has a champion in no less a personage than his chief, Attorney General Wickersham, who has threatened to resign from the association if Lewis is not admitted. Col. Alexander Troy of Montgomery, Ala., has replied thus:

"You keep your negro and lose a thousand members throughout the South."

The executive committee admitted Lewis to membership without knowledge of his color, and then rescinded its action and left the matter for the association to decide.

The president's address, by S. S. Gregory of Illinois, opened the meeting this morning. He communicated the most noteworthy changes in statute law made in the several states and in congress in the past year. Reports of officers and committees and discussions of these reports were the principal features of the first day's routine.

Frank B. Kellogg's address on "New Nationalism," comes tomorrow morning. Following the discussion of this paper there will be discussions regarding proposed laws to prevent delay and unnecessary cost in litigation; compensation for industrial accidents, and their prevention; bills relating to courts of admiralty; opposition to the recall of judges, government liens on real estate, and publicity. Tomorrow night the association will hear a paper on "The Courts and the Constitution," by Senator George Sutherland of Utah.

A symposium on the general topic, "The American Judicial System," will be handled Thursday under these subtitles: "The Judges," by Henry D. Estabrook of New York; "The Lawyers," by Joseph C. France of Maryland; "The Procedure," by Frederick N. Judson of Missouri. The annual dinner will be given by the association Thursday night at the Plankinton house, with W. N. Hensel of Lancaster, Pa., as toastmaster.

NEGRO PROTECTS WHITE GIRLS

Seeing Them Insulted, Ex-Football Player Promptly Knocks Assailant Down.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 27.—Raymond Dysart, a negro, who played on the freshmen football team of the University of Minnesota last year, is being held by the police after having probably fatally injured Michael Eide, white, when the latter, according to the police, insulted two young white girls. Witnesses told the police that Eide threw his arms about the girls, that they screamed for help and that Dysart, who was standing nearby, knocked Eide to the pavement, breaking his neck.

Drowns With Hundreds Near.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 27.—E. P. Dunham, 55 years old, a well known Lincoln business man, drowned in the Capital Beach swimming pool here and he was not missed until his wife, who had brought a lunch, began to hunt for him. The body was recovered after it had been under water more than two hours. The drowning took place in the presence of hundreds of people, but no one saw him go under.

SPELLBINDERS WILL GET BUSY

Close of Congress Marks Opening of Lively Campaign.

MANY STATESMEN TAKE TO STUMP

Washington Almost Deserted in a Day —All Members Hurrying Preparations to Leave—Nearly all Have Speaking Dates.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Primed for the strenuous campaign of the two months that precede the November elections, members of the senate and house hurried out of town or made reservations for the next few days to get what rest is possible before the wearing round of stump speeches and political meetings begin.

Speaker Clark prepared to leave at once for Maine, where he is to speak this week. Senator Clapp will leave immediately for Vermont to make Progressive speeches.

Cannon Will be "Loaded."

Former Speaker Cannon confided to friends that he intended to "hang around" for a few days to get up a collection of campaign literature.

"Then I'm going out on the stump," he said, "and when I make a statement that anybody challenges, I'll be loaded for him."

Senator La Follette will remain in Washington for a week or so and then go to Wisconsin. He has stated that he would endeavor to go into all Progressive states during the campaign, aiding state candidates of a progressive Republican type. Senator Poindexter of Washington, one of the strong Progressives of the senate, will visit Col. Roosevelt at New York and spend some time in the East before getting actively into the campaign.

Senator Penrose has already left for a cruise off the New Jersey coast. Senator Simmons of North Carolina will go to New York to confer with leaders of the Democratic national committee and then hasten to his home state, where he is a candidate for re-election. Senator Bacon, after a visit to Georgia, expects to return north for political speeches.

Nelson to "Finish Threshing."

Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota announced that he was returning to his farm "to finish up threshing."

Representative Henry of Texas, chairman of the house rules committee, also will enter the Maine campaign. He left for there and later will return to Texas. After September 30 he will fill speaking dates in New Mexico, Arizona, California, Washington, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri, Indiana and Ohio.

Representative Lloyd of Missouri, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, left for his home. He will be back in Washington September 10, to open headquarters of his campaign committee. Representative McKinley, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, is already out on the campaign.

TRAIN ROBBER NOT A BEGINNER

Inquiries Regarding Lounsberry Pour Into Topeka From all Quarters.

Topeka, Aug. 27.—There appears to have been a remarkable similarity in many train robberies to the two mail car holdups of Wells Lounsberry, under arrest here for the Union Pacific robbery of Thursday night. The police and government officials have received several telegrams asking about probable crimes of Lounsberry in other states which were similar to the mail car robberies.

The robbery of the Southern Pacific mail car in California January 5, the holdup of the six mail clerks on Union Pacific train No. 101 between Kansas City and Lawrence Thursday is freely admitted by Lounsberry, but he denies that he has had anything to do with any other robberies or holdups.

STATE GAME LAWS ARE IGNORED

Campers From Various States Flock to Oklahoma and Kill, Regardless of Statutes.

Hugo, Ok., Aug. 27.—The usual summer killing of game is taking place in the Kiamitia mountain country. Deer and wild turkey are reported more plentiful than last year. Campers from Texas, Arkansas, Missouri and Oklahoma go into the mountains ostensibly to fish. They scatter the charred fragments of bones of deer and turkey killed out of season in defiance of the bag limit. The number of such camping parties is large. Many may be found along Glover, Terrapin, Mountain Fork and Little river. One party lately had not only its wagons, but ten horses and numerous high-pressure rifles.

Made a Fortune in Jail.

New York, Aug. 27.—Joseph G. Robin, ex-president of the wrecked Northern bank, has made another fortune of more than $1,000,000 while spending the last year in the Tombs, according to the New York Globe. The paper asserts that Robin was allowed a "private office" in the Tombs, equipped with a telephone and a typewriter.

TOOK HONEYMOON TRIP ON $6

BRIDEGROOM IN JAIL OVER $250 MOTOR BILL.

Frisco Salesgirl Thought She Had Married Son of Millionaire Orchard Owner.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—James Byrd, 32 years old, was driven with his bride to police headquarters by Louis Wait, chauffeur, who said the youth owed him $250 for automobile hire. The prisoner admitted he was unable to pay the bill and had to spend the night in jail.

Questioned by the police, the distressed bride said she met Byrd recently in San Francisco and consented to marry him after he told her his father was a millionaire fruit rancher in Santa Clara county.

Several days ago Byrd appeared in an automobile he hired from Wait at the rate of $50 a day and induced the girl to accompany him to San Jose, where she changed her name from Jessica Short, salesgirl, to Mrs. James Byrd, supposed daughter-in-law of a man of millions.

Motoring back to San Francisco, Byrd had the chauffeur stop outside of an opulent fruit ranch, which he said belonged to his father. Going inside for a moment, Byrd returned with a handful of fruit and said his father was too ill to be seen.

The chauffeur told the police that Byrd slipped a dime to the ranch hand for the fruit and that he decided to drive him direct to the city prison when the young man began to talk about deferring payment on the automobile bill until his father got over his indisposition.

Also for the further purpose of nominating a full Progressive ticket for the offices of representative, sheriff, treasurer, prosecuting attorney, judge of the north district, judge of the south district, surveyor and coroner, all of said offices to be filled at the election this coming November.

The county convention herein called will also take such steps as may be deemed best looking to the completion of a Progressive party organization in Nodaway county.

This county convention will be a mass convention, and every voter of the county who is a member of the Progressive party will be entitled to be present and participate.

The downstairs or main floor of the theater will be reserved for the members of the party, and no person will be admitted to said floor until he has delivered to the doorkeeper a ticket in the form which will be prepared and furnished by the county committee, and which ticket must be signed by the party desiring admission, and also state his residence, that he is a voter in Nodaway county, a member of the Progressive party, and that he will support at the polls in November the Progressive ticket, national, state and county. Blank tickets may be secured of the committee on the day of the convention. The gallery of the theater will be open to the public, unless it should be necessary to clear it to make room for members of the party.

Witness our hands this 22d day of August, 1912, by order of the Nodaway county Progressive committee.

GO EASY ON HEALTH FADS

Trouble Is That They Cannot Be Made to Suit the Physical Make-Up of All People.

Cleveland is the home of the newest fad. The Ohio city has a "Keep Well" club composed of persons who believe in restricting indulgence in food. They fast now and then from a week to a month. One apostle of the cult declares he has found abounding health in a diet of eight quarts of milk daily for eight months.

It may be that this foodless life is beneficial to some Clevelanders. It is probably also true that many people in other cities—perhaps even some in Detroit—eat too much, particularly in the summer time. But it is equally probable that many imitators of the cult will starve themselves beyond the endurance point of weak hearts and so commit virtual suicide.

It is just at this point that so many health, beauty, and nostrum fads become so deadly and so damaging. Every well-informed person knows that a wise medical practitioner when called to attend a sufferer, must try to adjust his remedies to the physical powers and idiosyncrasies of the patient. The remedy which acted like magic in the case of Jones who had la grippe may prove useless and actually dangerous to Smith, owing to some disturbance of Smith's digestion, weakness of his heart, or what not. So with health fads. Hence, before becoming any sort of a faddist see your family doctor.—Detroit Free Pres.

WHEN MISS ANTHONY FAILED

Bowed in Defeat Before Her Woman's Nature, Though Probably She Never Knew It.

In an article on "A Woman and Her Raiment" in the American Magazine, Ida M. Tarbell has the following to say about bloomers:

"The story of the bloomer is piquant. It was launched and worn. It became the subject of platform oratory and had its organ. Why is it not worn today? No woman who has ever masqueraded in man's dress or donned it for climbing will ever forget the freedom of it. Yet the only woman in the Christian world who ever wore it at once naturally and with that touch of coquetry which is necessary to carry it off, as far as this writer's personal observation goes, was Mme. Dieulafoy, and Mme. Dieulafoy was protected by the French government and an exclusive circle.

"Bloomers proved too much for even the courage of dear Miss Anthony. For two years she wore them, and then with tears and lamentations resigned them. In that resignation Miss Anthony paid tribute, unconsciously no doubt, to something deeper than she ever grasped in the woman question. Her valiant soul met its master in her own nature, but she did not recognize it. She abandoned her convenient and becoming costume because of prejudice, she said. What other prejudice ever dismayed her! She thrived on fighting them; she met her woman's soul, and did not know it!"

First Picture Postal Cards in 1870.

In Nuremberg they have been making arrangements to celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of the picture postal card with a congress and exposition this year. Unfortunately for their plans, however, it has been discovered that the first picture postal card was not made in Germany or sent from Nuremberg, nor was it born in 1882, as they had supposed. The distinction of making and mailing the first is now claimed by Leon Besnardeau, a book seller of Sille-le-Guillaume, near Conlie, department of Sarthe, France, in 1870, during the war with Prussia, he printed pictures on postal cards he was mailing to clients. M. Besnardeau is still alive and there are many of his old customers in France who have the cards he mailed them. The Germans adopted the idea for the Nuremberg exposition in 1882.

Obedience to Moral Law.

"Obedience to moral law will not bring prosperity, necessarily, but it will enable a man to do without it; it will ennoble poverty. Goodness is its own paymaster. There is no need to make goodness attractive by artificial rewards; no need to make vice forbidding by arbitrary punishments. The fearful punishment of lying is to be a liar; the fearful punishment of vice is to be a vicious man; the horrible punishment of beastliness is to be a beast. The splendid reward of being good is to be a good man. You love your husband and wife and children and friends. Do you ask for more than the joy and privilege of loving?"—A Modern Preacher.

Friend of the People.

Mr. Pompus (to butler)—I'm expecting a deputation at 12 o'clock to ask me to stand for the borough.

Butler—Yes, sir.

Mr. Pompus—Perhaps it would be as well to remove all the best umbrellas from the hat stand.—London Opinion.

Thoughtless Query.

"Have you ever been married before?" asked the license clerk.

"Great heavens, young man!" exclaimed the experienced prima donna. "Don't you read the papers?"

Whereupon she wired immediate instructions to discharge her press agent.

NEED OF THE DAILY APPLE

That or Some Other Form of Fruit Provides Just the Elements the Body Requires.

Doctors agree that the ancient adage that "an apple a day keeps the doctor away" is not without some foundation in fact. Fruit acids provide the blood with needed elements and these are specially needed in warm weather when the stomach loathes all manner of baked meats.

Men have a craving for alcohol that is so nearly universal that some people consider it the human body's natural craving for a germicide. The alcohol in fruits is the valuable germicide that nature intended man to have. This germicide of alcohol is injurious when taken in the shape of intoxicants, but beneficial when consumed as a constituent part of fruits.

The case of carbolic acid affords an analogy to this of fruit and alcohol. No sane person would think of drinking carbolic acid as an agent of health, and yet the chemical laboratory called the body secretes minute amounts of carbolic acid, a fact indicating that it is a necessity to nature's housekeeping.

Eaters of fruit obtain the germicidal alcohol beneficially because naturally, whereas drinkers of ardent spirits procure their alcohol in unnaturally large quantities, and therefore in a highly hurtful shape.

The daily apple or grape or some other fruit is as indispensable as the daily bread. It is a part of the household bill of fare that should not be overlooked at any season, and least of all at this. Who knows, too, but what the road from excessive indulgence in alcoholic stimulants runs from wine or cider through grape juice and other juices or fruits to plentiful consumption of the fruits themselves.

BODY AS A COMPASS NEEDLE

Ants Have an Unfailing Method of Finding Their Way Back to Their Nests.

Not only naturalists, but every one who has watched ants has wondered how they find their way to and from their nests. A French naturalist, M. Cornetz, has been observing ants in Algeria and in a recent issue of La Nature he tells the results of his observations.

The ant, he says, in its outward journey, proceeds throughout in the direction initially chosen; on its return the insect places its body at the same angle and walks in the opposite direction. The body of the ant would therefore act as a kind of compass needle.

If an ant is caught at the nest and transported to a point some yards distant, the insect is quite incapable of finding its way back. It runs around on the ground until it accidentally comes across the entrance to the burrow. The case is quite different if an ant is allowed to find its way to a distance unmolested. On leaving the nest it places itself in a certain direction, and holds the same, no matter what obstacles it may meet with en route, and no matter what side tracks it may occasionally strike in order to seize some article of food or of structural value for its nest.

The return is effected directly, rapidly and without hesitation, even if the ground covered has been swept in order to change its relief. The return is obviously determined completely by the outward trip, and an ant which has left its nest on a voyage of exploration finds its way back just because it has made the outward journey.

Money Well Spent.

During the last year 164 brides received the $50 due them by the will of Oliver Smith, the fairy godfather of the Berkshires. Oliver Smith was the uncle of Sophia Smith, founder of Smith college, and on his death in 1845 left his property, amounting to $370,000, to be used for various charities, one of which was the giving of $50 to every bride who was a resident of Northampton, Amhert, Hadley, Hadfield, Dearfield or Whately. Since 1845 $282,000 has been distributed to brides. In many instances the bridegroom received $500 because of a provision in Mr. Smith's will giving that amount to a young man when he completes learning a trade. Another provision of the will helps poor widows, provided they are residents of the towns named. Already upward of $2,000,000 has been paid to widows and young men who have learned a trade.

To Reclaim 1,000,000 Acres.

The Egyptian government has begun one of the most costly and comprehensive drainage projects for the reclamation of lands ever attempted by any government in the world. Its object is to make cultivable 1,000,000 acres of fertile land in the delta of lower Egypt. It is estimated that the work will require four years and $15,000,000 will be required for drainage, and a like amount for irrigation. Ninety per cent. of the land redeemed will be owned by the government. The principal object of the project is to redeem a fertile but now worthless region of the delta under cotton cultivation.

Taxation.

"In what respect do you complain of being overtaxed?" asked the persuasive campaigner.

"Well," replied Farmer Corntossel, handing him several pages of literature, "chiefly in respect to my credulity."

PLAN SIBERIAN SEA ROUTES

Russian Authorities Seek to Establish Communication From Its Pacific Ports.

Contrary to previous reports, it now appears that the plans of the English captain, Webster, to establish regular steamship communication between European ports and northwestern Siberia, by way of the Arctic ocean and Kara sea have been disapproved by the Russian government, obviously for the reason that this bold undertaking, which appeared to be entirely feasible, would have diverted considerable traffic from the Trans-Siberian railway. On the other hand, the Russian authorities are furthering in every way the establishment of communication by sea between Pacific ports and northwestern Siberia via Bering strait, says a writer in the Scientific American. A surveying party, under Captain Grunfield, has proceeded from Yakutsk to Nishni Kolymsk, at the mouth of the Koyma river, to make a thorough investigation of that port, and the geologist, J. P. Tolmatschew, will study the conditions of navigation between the mouths of the Kolyma and the Lena, including an examination of the Lena delta, with a view to establishing a sea route to the latter region. The icebreakers Taimyr and Waigatsch were to leave Vladivostok in May for a surveying expedition along the coast of Kamtchatka, after which they will proceed via Bering strait to the arctic coast of Siberia for a cruise at least as far west as the Lena. If ice conditions prove favorable, these vessels will attempt to pass Cape Chelyuskin and accomplish the northeast passage to the European port of Archangel.

SCENE IN THE NEAR FUTURE

When Man Shall Have Completed, as He Boasts He Will, His Mastery of the Air.

The old village postmaster limped out of his office and elbowed his way through the crowd of gaping rustics, squinted at the heavens through a three-foot telescope.

"Anythin' in sight, Uncle John?" inquired the village interrogation mark.

The postmaster did not reply. He caught sight of a moving speck low down in the sky. The speck arose, it gained in bulk, it came nearer. The postmaster closed his $4 telescope.

"Here she is, boys!" shouted the village cut-up.

The areoplane swerved down. The letters, "U. S. M.," were plainly visible.

"Lookoutbelowthere!" called a faint voice, and down came a leathera mail bag. It struck the village smarty squarely on the head and knocked him into the horse trough.

The old postmaster shook his telescope at the aerial carriers.

"You're three minutes late, boys," he yelled.

But the big bird was soaring away across the valley.

A Truth Taught by Old Proverb.

An Arabian proverb divided mankind into four classes: "A man who knows naught and knows not that he knows not that he knows naught, he is a fool; shun him. A man who knows naught and knows that he knows naught, he is simple; instruct him. A man who knows not that he knows, he is asleep; wake him up. A man who knows, and knows that he knows, he is a leader; follow him."

Generous.

"You wish to marry my only daughter," murmured the magnate. "Would you take from me all that I have to solace me in my old age?"

"By no means," declared the duke warmly. "We want you to keep at least $50,000."—Sacred Heart Review.
